Program Note

Three Romances is an orchestral arrangement of pieces for solo piano by the 19th century pianist and composer Clara Schumann (1819-1896):

Quatre Pièces Caractéristiques, Op. 5, movement 3, “Romance” (1835-36)

Drei Romanzen, Op. 21, movement 2 (1853)

Drei Präludien und Fugen, Op. 16, #2, “Preludium” (1845)

The three pieces span a time period from her days as a young touring piano virtuoso (the opening movement) to one of her last published compositions (the second movement). The “Prelude” of the final movement was composed during the time that she and her husband Robert were studying the fugues of J.S. Bach.

I decided to make orchestral arrangements of these short, lovely pieces in order to introduce more audiences to Mme. Schumann’s music. While the music of her husband Robert is widely known and played, Clara is only known for a few pieces of chamber music and songs. The only surviving orchestral music is an early piano concerto (1835-36) and a fragment of another piano concerto (1847).

— Paul Hayden

Biographical Information on the Composer:

Clara Schumann (1819-1896) had a long and distinguished career as a virtuoso pianist, teacher, and advocate for the music of her husband, Robert, and of their friend Johannes Brahms. She was a frequent collaborator with the great violinist Joseph Joachim. Already touring Europe as a piano prodigy at the age of 11, she began composing works for solo piano to showcase her technical ability. She premiered her Piano Concerto (completed at the age of 16) in 1835 with the Gewandhaus Orchestra conducted by Felix Mendelssohn. Her compositional output gradually decreased after her marriage to Robert in 1840 as the demands of running a household, bearing eight children, teaching, and performing claimed most of her time. After Robert showed signs of mental illness in 1854, Clara became the sole source of support for their surviving children. She composed virtually nothing after Robert’s death in 1856. However, for the next forty years, she tirelessly promoted the works of Robert, Brahms, Mendelssohn, Chopin, and Liszt.

Biographical Information on the Arranger:

Paul Hayden (b. 1956) received his graduate degrees in music composition from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign where he studied with Ben Johnston, Salvatore Martirano, and Thomas Fredrickson. Dr. Hayden has taught music at Louisiana State University and at Eastern Illinois University.

Hayden has received awards, grants, or recognition from ASCAP, the American Music Center, the Charles Ives Center for American Music, Delius Composition Competition (grand prize winner for A Tre for solo flute), the National Flute Association’s Newly Published Music Competition (winner for A Tre and Grand Mamou for flute and piano), Truman State University/MACRO Society Composers Competition (for Filé for orchestra), and the Virginia College Band Directors National Association (for Scintilla and Chalumeau, both for wind ensemble). Recent premieres include his Concerto for Alto Saxophone and Orchestra at the North American Saxophone Alliance Biennial Conference, Simple Serenades by Gabriel Beavers and the Mancini Institute Orchestra at the University of Miami, and In Plain Air premiered by the Shreveport Symphony Orchestra. Clara, based on fragments of music by Clara Schumann, will be premiered by the Baton Rouge Symphony in 2016.

Hayden’s music is published by Theodore Presser Co., Carl Fischer, Inc., and Magnolia Music Press. His music is recorded on the Centaur, Opus One, Mark, and WorldWinds record labels.

This page of a musical score contains measures 40 through 45. The instruments are arranged in three systems. The first system includes Flute (Fls.), Oboe (Ob.), Clarinet 1 (Clar. 1), Clarinet 2 (Clar. 2), and Bassoon (Bsns.). The second system includes Horns 1 and 2 (Hns. 1, 2), Horns 3 and 4 (Hns. 3, 4), and Trumpet (Tpt.). The third system includes Violin I (Vln. I), Violin II (Vln. II), Viola (Vle.), Violoncello (Vc.), and Double Bass (DB). The score is in a key signature of one flat (B-flat major or D minor) and a 4/4 time signature. Measures 40 and 45 are marked with boxed numbers. Dynamics include piano (p), mezzo-forte (mf), and mezzo-piano (mp). The woodwinds and brass play melodic lines with various articulations, while the strings provide a harmonic accompaniment. The Flute part starts with a dynamic marking of a2 in measure 40.
